

Did You Know? Resume Fraud

Chances are, you've fibbed on your resume. Come on, everyone has. But what you might not realize is that while 78% of resumes contain misleading information, 53% contain down-right lies.

78% of employment applications are misleading¹

Common embellishments include:

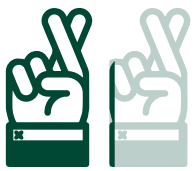

skill set

prior job titles and responsibilities

dates of employment

53% of employment applications contain a falsification¹

21% of employment applications contain falsified degrees¹

Diploma mills provide academic degrees and diplomas with substandard or no academic study for a fee

The Council for Higher Education Accreditation estimates that 100,000 fake degrees and diplomas are sold every year²

Even references can be falsified . . .

27% of applicant references are misleading or falsified¹

It is estimated that resume fraud costs employers approximately $600 billion annually³

Conducting verifications will help to ensure that you're hiring the talent that you need

VALIDITY
screening solutions

Go Directly to the Source

¹<http://www.statisticbrain.com/resume-falsification-statistics/>

²<http://priceconomics.com/the-business-of-fake-diplomas/>

³<https://lansingbusinessnews.com/business-news-today/2016/06/resume-fraud-little-white-lies-arent-so-little-anymore/>